Dusty Standlee
CEO & President
Standlee Premium Western Forage
dstandlee@standleeforage.com

Dusty's experience in the forage industry started at an early age with his grandfather, Gene Standlee, before joining his father, Mike Standlee, at Western Alfalfa Farms which later became Standlee Hay Company. He has worked in almost every facet of the company and took on an active management role in 2002. In 2012, he became President of Standlee Hay Company. Most recently, Dusty accepted and assumed the CEO role at Standlee Hay Company from his father, Mike, in 2015.

Dusty lives in Eden, ID and enjoys spending time with his wife, Amanda, and their son & daughter.