Dan Burton
CEO
Health Catalyst

Dan Burton serves as CEO of Health Catalyst, a Sequoia-backed healthcare data warehousing and analytics company headquartered in Salt Lake City. He became involved as an investor and as the business leader of Health Catalyst when it was a three-person startup. Health Catalyst, now with 400+ employees, helps healthcare organizations of all sizes improve clinical, financial, and operational outcomes needed to improve population health and accountable care. Their enterprise data warehouse (EDW) and analytics platform helps improve quality, add efficiency and lower costs in support of more than 65 million patients for organizations ranging from the largest US health system to forward-thinking physician practices.

In 2017, Mr. Burton won a Glassdoor Employees’ Choice Award, ranking No. 9 among the CEOs out of the 445,000 small & medium sized businesses surveyed by Glassdoor.

Mr. Burton is also the co-founder of HB Ventures, a consulting and private equity firm which focused on organizations in turnaround situations. Previously, Mr. Burton led the Corporate Strategy Group at Micron Technology. He also spent eight years with Hewlett-Packard in strategy and marketing management roles. Before joining HP he was an associate consultant with the Boston Consulting Group, where he advised healthcare systems and technology companies. Mr. Burton holds an MBA with high distinction from Harvard University, where he was elected a George F. Baker Scholar, and a BS in economics, magna cum laude from BYU.